[redacted] VISIT

25X1D

[redacted] commented on visit from [redacted] today regarding the role of IRS relative to management of requirements levied on IAS--can IRS deny IAS to reply to a request. Some requirements may not be sent to IAS because [redacted] thinks the requested information should be reported on within the basic reports program for community-wide dissemination. It was noted by [redacted] that some ground forces analysis would not be of interest to the entire intelligence community and should have limited distribution, and there is no flexibility in dissemination of basic reports.
